WINDSOR SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA
2024-2025 SEASON

A Note from Music Director Robert Franz

Welcome to the 2024-2025 season! I am happy to share with you a broad variety of music, and an even greater variety of guest artists who will perform alongside the talented Windsor Symphony Orchestra. Our mission is to connect people through music, and this season we'll do just that. You are our why—why we do what we do.

Amongst this year's thrilling virtuosos, we have Blake Pouliot on violin, Thomas Mesa on cello, and Philip Chiu on piano. We celebrate our friends right here in Windsor Essex with the talented Broadway Bunch, actor Christopher Lawrence Menard, and Abridged Opera founder Erin Armstrong, as she sings the lead role in Gluck's opera The Legend of Orfeo.

A world premiere by Syrian composer Malek Jandali, the Canadian debut of Chinese-American Pipa player Changlu Wu and a celebration of Black Composers, is our way of representing who we are as a community—one of the most diverse communities in Canada.

Your passion for our OnStage and Café Concert Series has been heard, and in response we have added a fifth concert. Two of these weeks will be led by our new Assistant Conductor Geoffrey Larson. Join me in welcoming Geoffrey into the WSO family.

We were honoured to be gifted the 2024 Pillars of our Community award by the Windsor-Essex Regional Chamber of Commerce, and as we head into our 77th season, we are dedicated to honouring that award and what it means to be a core part of Windsor Essex.

Thank you for being part of the WSO community. You are a vital part of who we are, and we wouldn't be here without you!

Sincerely,

Robert Franz, WSO Music Director

The WSO family in your community.

BEETHOVEN 7

Filled with light and optimism, Symphony No. 7 is immediately recognizable if you've seen the film, The King's Speech. Changlu Wu, who plays the pipa (a Chinese lute) graces the stage with a work written to celebrate the folk music of the Qilian mountains in China. This performance kicks off with Canadian-American composer Jared Miller's Ricochet - Reverb - Repeat, which takes inspiration from electronic samples.

BUH-ROKE

Johann Sebastian Bach's thrilling First Orchestral Suite is one of his works purely for orchestra. This is paired with two works written by living composers from world-renowned groups: Marjan Mozetich, from Toronto-based Tafelmusik; and Damien Geter from the Portland Baroque Orchestra. These composers pay homage to the great Bach by putting their own twist on his music.

Fuchs: Serenade No. 3 in E minor for String Orchestra

Strauss Jr.: An der schönen blauen Donau (Blue Danube)

CELEBRATING BLACK COMPOSERS

The WSO celebrates Black composers, performing Samuel Coleridge-Taylor’s Four Novelettes. He was a British composer of mixed-race heritage, a descendant of an African-American soldier. A late 19th Century Romantic powerhouse, Coleridge-Taylor wrote in the style of Dvořák. Adolphus Hailstork’s work, Sonata da Chiesa (Church Sonata), represents his African, Native-American, and European roots.

SCHUBERT 6

The WSO performs Schubert’s Symphony No. 6. Well-known for his songs and chamber music, Schubert is a master of contrast and using little tricks to mix up melodies. Ontario composer, John Burge, wrote his Port Milford Suite for the Music at Port Milford Summer School String Orchestra. Burge combines his passion for writing music for young people with his fondness for beautiful melodies.

MOZART

This unique presentation of Mozart’s Sinfonia Concertante features our principal oboe, clarinet, bassoon, and horn musicians. With a clear view of all the soloists, the audience will feel like they are in the centre of the action. Opening with Mozart’s Symphony No. 16, written when he was only 16 years old, this exploration of Mozart’s music will captivate you.
